

"I'm on the Road Again"

from "Love! at the Café!"

By Karen Sokolof Javitch

I'm on the road again
Singing with my heart, again
It's a brand-new start, again
That's because you're near me.

You're in my life again
Always on my mind, again
Loving, sweet and kind, again
Stay right here beside me.

With your love
Spring is here in wintertime
The poem is read and now it rhymes
It always feels like – summertime
With your love.

Spring is here in wintertime
It's never cold – the sun will shine
It always feels like – feels like summertime.

I'm on the road again
Singing with my heart, again
It's a brand-new start, again
That's because you love me.

You're in my life, again.
Always on my mind, again.
You're my valentine, again.
I'm on the road with you...
